PROJECTS

Huntington's Disease Genomic Sequence Classification Using EIIP Based Deep Learning | GitHub

- Implemented an EIIP based deep learning pipeline for classifying healthy and Huntington's disease associated genomic sequences using a Convolutional Neural Network.
- Developed an end to end workflow for FASTA sequence processing, EIIP encoding, sequence preprocessing, CNN training, threshold optimization, and model evaluation using TensorFlow.
- Achieved 95.63% classification accuracy on a 4,000 sequence experiment and demonstrated strong performance on an additional set of accessible genomic sequences.
- Evaluated model performance using ROC AUC, sensitivity, specificity, precision,F1-score, and G-mean.
